

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS DAY

- Overview of human trafficking
- The facts vs. the myths
- How to recognize and report
- Who's at risk?
- A victim-centered approach to protect human dignity and basic right of freedom

Thursday, January 11, 2018

1:00 p.m.–3:00 p.m.

Center for Ministry

5802 Weiss St.

Saginaw, MI 48603

Presenters:

Dawn Bellinger, St. Mary's of Michigan, Center of Hope

Terri Grierson, Catholic Diocese of Saginaw, Office of Christian Service

* Presenters were trained by the Michigan Human Trafficking Task Force

Please register by January 8, 2018 to Maria Coss at 989-797-6646 or mcoss@dioceseofsaginaw.org. There is no fee to attend, but registration is required.