GENERAL INFORMATION

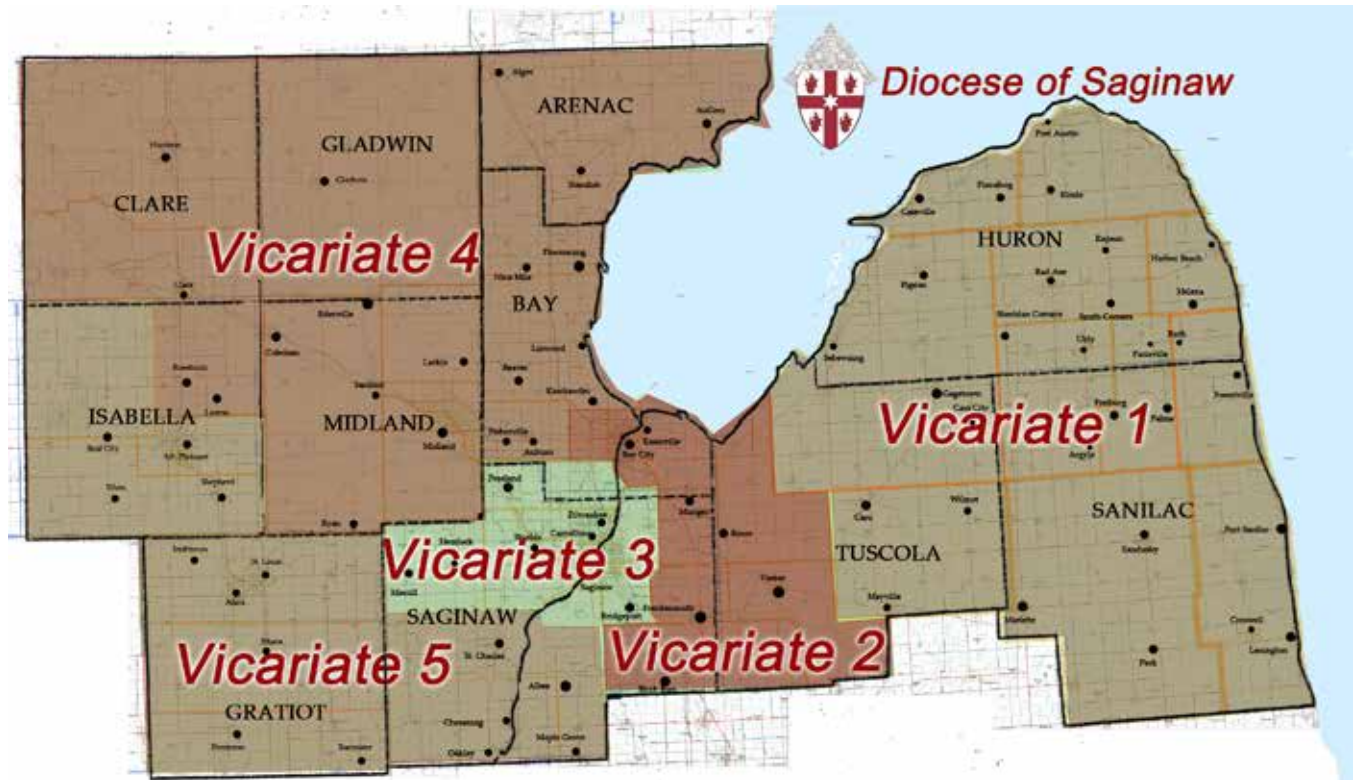

DIOCESAN COAT OF ARMS

The Catholic Diocese of Saginaw shield first shows the cross of our Faith in red on a silver field. To indicate the name "Saginaw," there is a Pentecostal flame placed in each canton of the shield, for this reason: the name of Saginaw Bay (Saginawa) signifies the country or place of the Sauk. The Sauk Indian tribes were first known to Europeans as "Gens de Feu" (People of Fire). The six-pointed star in the center of the shield signifies that Our Lady is of the House of David. The six-pointed star also represents her many heraldic attributes and is usually shown to indicate the Assumption. The cross atop the Cathedral of Mary of the Assumption has the same star on it as well.
