14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy and my burden light. ” Matthew 11:28-30

Being generous with our talents, time and resources could seem to be burdensome and tiring, but sharing our gifts from God should bring joy. Afterall, in our sharing of our gifts, even during challenging times, we are walking with Jesus and living the way God intends for us.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful ... So shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; It shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it. ” Isaiah 55:10-11

Being generous with our talents, time and resources could seem to be burdensome and tiring, but sharing our gifts from God should bring joy. Afterall, in our sharing of our gifts, even during challenging times, we are walking with Jesus and living the way God intends for us.

“The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of all plants. ” Matthew 13:31-32

It can be very easy to think that your talents are not keen enough or your resources large enough to make a difference. But such feelings should not prevent you from sharing your God-given gifts, no matter the size or depth. Small gifts and gestures can have great impact.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”. ” Matthew 13:44

Do we hide our treasures and talents so that only we can use them? Or do we share them for the benefit of others? How can we improve on sharing our hidden treasures?
