MISSION BOOTCAMP

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SAGINAW

28 As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. 29 But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. 30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. 32 They said to each other: "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" 33 That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. 34 They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" 35 Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

“In the early life of the Church, the great Apostles and their disciples brought the Good News of Jesus to the Greek and Roman world. Just as, at that time, a fruitful evangelization required that careful attention be given to understanding the culture and customs of those pagan peoples so that the truth of the gospel would touch their hearts and minds, so also today, the proclamation of Christ in the world of new technologies requires a profound knowledge of this world if the technologies are to serve our mission adequately. It falls, in particular, to young people, who have an almost spontaneous affinity for the new means of communication, to take on the responsibility for the evangelization of this ‘digital continent’.”

- Pope Benedict XVI, 2009

catholicspartan "Sophomore year was one of the hardest times I have ever faced in my life. I went through intense spiritual warfare and I felt like all hope was lost. My small group and being disciplined helped me get through some difficult times and allowed me to be open and honest with them. Meeting with a mentor allowed me to deepen my faith in Jesus and provided guidance in unseen obstacles. I'm becoming a small group leader because I want to give people hope and strengthen their faith with God and the people around them!"
